To the extent a Commitment is conditioned on the sale of Purchaser's current home, payment of any outstanding debt, no material adverse change in Purchaser's financial condition or any other customary conditions, Purchaser accepts the risk that such conditions may not be met; however, a commitment conditioned on the Institutional Lender's approval of an appraisal shall not be deemed a "Commitment" hereunder until an appraisal is approved (and if that does not occur before the Commitment Date, Purchaser may cancel under subparagraph 8(e) unless the Commitment Date is extended). ~~Purchaser's obligations hereunder are conditioned only on issuance of a Commitment. Once a Commitment is issued, Purchaser is bound under this contract even if the lender fails or refuses to fund the loan for any reason.~~

Purchaser's election, more than one Institutional Lender for such mortgage loan, (ii) furnish accurate and complete information regarding Purchaser and members of Purchaser's family, as required, (iii) pay all fees, points and charges required in connection with such application and loan, (iv) pursue such application with diligence, and (v) cooperate in good faith with such Institutional Lender(s) to obtain a Commitment. Purchaser shall accept a Commitment meeting the terms set forth in subparagraph 8(a) and shall comply with all requirements of such Commitment (or any other commitment accepted by Purchaser). (c) ~~(Delete this subparagraph if inapplicable)~~ Prompt submission by Purchaser of an application to a mortgage broker registered pursuant to Article 12-D of the New York Banking Law ("Mortgage Broker") shall constitute full compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in subparagraph 8(b)(i), provided that such Mortgage Broker promptly submits such application to such Institutional Lender(s). Purchaser shall cooperate in good faith with such Mortgage Broker to obtain a Commitment from such Institutional Lender(s).

(d) If all Institutional Lenders to whom applications were made deny such applications in writing prior to the Commitment Date, Purchaser may cancel this contract by giving Notice thereof to Seller, with a copy of such denials, provided that Purchaser has complied with all its obligations under this paragraph 8.

(e) If no Commitment is issued by an Institutional Lender on or before the Commitment Date, then, unless Purchaser has accepted a written commitment from an Institutional Lender that does not conform to the terms set forth in subparagraph 8(a), Purchaser may cancel this contract by giving Notice to Seller within ~~5 business days~~ after the Commitment Date, provided that such Notice includes the name and address of the Institutional Lender(s) to whom application was made and that Purchaser has complied with all its obligations under this paragraph 8.

(f) If this contract is canceled by Purchaser pursuant to subparagraphs 8(d) or (e), neither party shall thereafter have any further rights against, or obligations or liabilities to, the other by reason of this contract, except that the Downpayment shall be promptly refunded to Purchaser and except as set forth in paragraph 27.

(g) ~~If Purchaser fails to give timely Notice of cancellation or if~~ Purchaser accepts a written commitment from an Institutional Lender that does not conform to the terms set forth in subparagraph 8(a), then Purchaser shall be deemed to have waived Purchaser's right to cancel this contract and to receive a refund of the Downpayment by reason of the contingency contained in this paragraph 8.

(h) If Seller has not received a copy of a commitment from an Institutional Lender accepted by Purchaser by the Commitment Date, Seller may cancel this contract by giving Notice to Purchaser within 5 business days after the Commitment Date, which cancellation shall become effective unless Purchaser delivers a copy of such commitment to Seller within 10 business days after the Commitment Date. After such cancellation neither party shall have any further rights against, or obligations or liabilities to, the other by reason of this contract, except that the Downpayment shall be promptly refunded to Purchaser (provided Purchaser has complied with all its obligations under this paragraph 8) and except as set forth in paragraph 27.

(i) For purposes of this contract, the term "Institutional Lender" shall mean any bank, savings bank, private banker, trust company, savings and loan association, credit union or similar banking institution whether organized under the laws of this state, the United States or any other state; foreign banking corporation licensed by the Superintendent of Banks of New York or regulated by the Comptroller of the Currency to transact business in New York State; insurance company duly organized or licensed to do business in New York State; mortgage banker licensed pursuant to Article 12-D of the Banking Law; and any instrumentality created by the United States or any state with the power to make mortgage loans.

As an alternative Seller may deposit sufficient monies with the title insurance company employed by Purchaser acceptable to and required by it to assure their discharge, but only if the title insurance company will insure Purchaser's title clear of the matters or insure against their enforcement out of the Premises and will insure Purchaser's Institutional Lender clear or such matters. (b)(i) If at the date of Closing Seller is unable to transfer title to Purchaser in accordance with this contract, or Purchaser has other valid grounds for refusing to close, whether by reason of liens, encumbrances or other objections to title or otherwise (herein collectively called "Defects"), other than those subject to which Purchaser is obligated to accept title hereunder or which Purchaser may have waived or other than those which Seller has herein expressly agreed to remove, remedy or discharge and if Purchaser shall be unwilling to waive the same and to close title without abatement of the purchase price, then, except as hereinafter set forth, Seller shall have the right, at Seller's sole election, either to take such action as Seller may deem advisable to remove, remedy, discharge or comply with such Defects or to cancel this contract, (ii) if Seller elects to take action to remove, remedy or comply with such Defects, Seller shall be entitled from time to time, upon Notice to Purchaser, to adjourn the date for Closing hereunder for a period or periods not exceeding 30 days in the aggregate (but not extending beyond the date upon which Purchaser's mortgage commitment, if any, shall expire), and the date for Closing shall be adjourned to a date specified by Seller not beyond such period. If for any reason whatsoever, Seller shall not have succeeded in removing, remedying or complying with such Defects at the expiration of such adjournment(s), and if Purchaser shall still be unwilling to waive the same and to close title without abatement of the purchase price, then either party may cancel this contract by Notice to the other given within 10 days after such adjourned date; (iii) notwithstanding the foregoing, the existing mortgage (unless this sale is subject to the same) and any matter created by Seller after the date hereof shall be released, discharged or otherwise cured by Seller at or prior to Closing.

23. Defaults and Remedies. (a) If Purchaser defaults hereunder, Seller's sole remedy shall be to receive and retain the Downpayment as liquidated damages, it being agreed that Seller's damages in case of Purchaser's default might be impossible to ascertain and that the Downpayment constitutes a fair and reasonable amount of damages under the circumstances and is not a penalty.

(b) If Seller defaults hereunder, Purchaser shall have such remedies as Purchaser shall be entitled to at law or in equity, including, but not limited to, specific performance.

24. Purchaser's Lien. All money paid on account of this contract, and the reasonable expenses of examination of title to the Premises and of any survey and survey inspection charges, are hereby made liens on the Premises, but such liens shall not continue after default by Purchaser under this contract.

Each Notice mailed shall be deemed given on the third business day following the date of mailing the same, except that any notice to Escrowee shall be deemed given only upon receipt by Escrowee and each Notice delivered in person or by overnight courier shall be deemed given when delivered, or

(c) with respect to ¶7 (b) or ¶20, sent by fax to the party's attorney. Each Notice by fax shall be deemed given when transmission is confirmed by the sender's fax machine. A copy of each Notice sent to a party shall also be sent to the party's attorney. Seller and Purchaser shall indemnify and defend each other against any costs, claims and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of the breach on their respective parts of any representation or agreement contained in this paragraph. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive Closing or, if Closing does not occur, the termination of this contract.

NOTES ON MORTGAGE COMMITMENT CONTINGENCY CLAUSE for

RESIDENTIAL CONTRACT OF SALE

1. WARNING: the mortgage commitment contingency clause for the Residential Contract of Sale is a bar association form that attempts to provide a mechanism that makes the rights and obligations of the parties clear in sales of residences in ordinary circumstances. It should be reviewed carefully by Seller and Purchaser and their attorneys in each and every transaction to make sure that all the provisions are appropriate for that transaction. Negotiated modifications should be made whenever necessary.

2. Under the clause, the obligation of Purchaser to purchase under the contract of sale is contingent on Purchaser's obtaining a mortgage commitment letter from an Institutional Lender within the number of days specified for the amount specified. This refers to calendar days. Seller's attorney should state his/her calculation of the Commitment Date in the letter delivering the executed contract to Purchaser's attorney, to prevent confusion later. Purchaser should promptly confirm or correct that date. In applying for a loan, Purchaser should inform its lender of the scheduled date of closing in the contract and request that the expiration date of the commitment occur after the scheduled date of closing. Purchaser must comply with deadlines and pursue the application in good faith. The commitment contingency is satisfied by issuance of a commitment in the amount specified on or before the Commitment Date, unless the commitment is conditioned on approval of an appraisal. If the commitment is conditioned on approval of an appraisal and such approval does not occur prior to the Commitment Date, Purchaser should either cancel the contract or obtain an extension of the Commitment Date. If the commitment is later withdrawn or not honored, Purchaser runs the risk of being in default under the contract of sale with Seller.

3. If there are loan terms and conditions that are required or would not be acceptable to Purchaser, such as the interest rate, term of the loan, points, fees or a condition requiring sale of the current home, those terms and conditions should be specified in a rider.

4. This clause assumes that initial review and approval of Purchaser's credit will occur before the commitment letter is issued. Purchaser should confirm with the lender that this is the case before applying for the commitment.

5. If, as has been common, the commitment letter itself is conditioned on sale of Purchaser's home or payment of any outstanding debt or no material adverse change in Purchaser's financial condition, such a commitment will satisfy the contract contingency nonetheless, and Purchaser will take the risk of fulfilling those commitment conditions, including forfeiture of the downpayment if Purchaser defaults on its obligation to close. Under New York case law, a defaulting purchaser may not recover any part of the downpayment, and Seller does not have to prove any damages. If Purchaser is not willing to take that risk, the clause must be modified accordingly.

6. Purchaser may submit an application to a registered mortgage broker instead of applying directly to an Institutional Lender.

7. This clause allows Seller to cancel if a commitment is not accepted by Purchaser by the Commitment Date, unless Purchaser timely supplies a copy of the commitment, to allow Seller the option to avoid having to wait until the scheduled date of closing to see if Purchaser will be able to close. Seller may prefer to cancel rather than to wait and settle for forfeiture of the downpayment if Purchaser defaults. Because of Seller's right to cancel, Purchaser may not waive this contingency clause. This clause means that Purchaser is subject to cancellation by Seller even if Purchaser is willing to risk that he/she will obtain the Commitment after the Commitment Date. Some Purchasers may not want to be subject to such cancellation by Seller.

8. Purchaser may want to add to paragraph 22 that Purchaser's reimbursement should include non-refundable financing and inspection expenses of Purchaser, which should be refunded by Seller if Seller willfully defaults under the contract or sale (alternative: if Seller is unable to transfer title under the contract of sale).

RIDER TO CONTRACT OF SALE

SELLER: Robert Jablonski

PURCHASER: Tahany TAwfik

PREMISES: 15 Eden Ct, Staten Island, NY 10307

DATED: February 11, 2019

Notwithstanding anything heretofore contained to the contrary, it is agreed as follows:

1. The premises are to be transferred subject to:
 - a) Any state of facts an accurate survey may show provided it does not render title unmarketable.
 - b) Public utility easements within 10 feet of the perimeter of the premises provided that no presently existing structures are located within the area of easement.
 - c) Covenants, restrictions, reservations and agreements provided same are not violated by existing structures or present use thereof.
 - d) Fence variations of up to one (1) feet from record lines shall not be deemed an objection to title.
2. The Purchasers shall notify the Seller in advance of closing of any defects in title and the Seller shall be entitled to a reasonable adjournment of the closing for the purpose of clearing up such objections, but Seller shall have no obligation to incur any expense to clear any title exceptions.
3. This contract is not to be considered to be binding and in effect until it has been fully executed by all parties, and returned to Purchasers attorney. In addition, this Contract may not be recorded by Purchaser.
4. Seller shall not be required to bring variance proceedings or change-of-zone proceedings to secure any of said certificates. Seller shall provide the Certificate of Occupancy for a ONE family dwelling. Seller shall not be required to provide Certificate of Compliance, Completion or similar certificates for fences, sheds, pools, stoops or any other structures other than the dwelling. In the event that a Certificate of Occupancy cannot be obtained by the Seller without bringing said proceedings, the Seller has the option to cancel this contract and return the monies deposited upon the signing thereof, neither party shall have any further rights as against the other. In any event, however, Purchasers may elect to proceed with the purchase regardless of the production of said certificates. In the event a new survey is required to obtain any certificates and/or letters, Purchaser agrees to provide it to Seller.

5. The acceptance of a deed by Purchasers shall be deemed full performance by and discharge of Seller of all terms, conditions and agreements made or required to be performed hereunder and no liability, therefore, on the part of the Seller shall survive the delivery of the deed unless otherwise agreed to between the parties in writing. The parties herein agree to waive a trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim arising out of or from this Contract.
6. In the event that the check given by the Purchasers to the Seller on the signing of this Contract shall not be honored for any reason by the bank on which it is drawn, the Seller, in addition to any other available remedies, may cancel and terminate this Contract, and Sellers shall be relieved and released from all obligations hereunder.
7. The Purchasers, at their own cost and expense and within ten (10) days from date of delivery of executed copy of this contract to Purchasers' attorney, may have an inspection made of all the structures situated on the subject premises to ascertain if there is any damage or infestation therein from termites or other wood destroying insects. The Seller shall make the premises available for such inspection at reasonable times. If such infestation is found, the Seller may either (1) correct the defect or make an allowance to the Purchasers for the cost of doing so and the contract shall remain in full force and effect, or (2) notify the Purchaser that the Seller intends to cancel the Contract, in which event Purchasers may elect to consummate the sale regardless of the defect. It is understood and agreed that notification of such damage or infestation shall be communicated to attorney for Seller by mail postmarked not more than fifteen days from the date of delivery of this contract to Purchasers' attorney. A finding of "evidence of infestation" or "previous infestation" without an affirmative statement of live activity shall be deemed a finding of no infestation.
8. In the event that it is determined that there are building, housing, fire, environmental control board, emergency, or any other governmental (County, City, State, or Federal) violations on the subject premises which pursuant to a written estimate of a contractor, carpenter, plumber or electrician will cost in excess of $500.00 to cure and discharge, Seller shall have the option of (1) removing the violations, or (2) canceling this contract and returning the deposit made hereunder to the Purchaser. In any event, Purchaser has the right to waive Purchaser's rights hereunder and to proceed with closing of title under the remaining conditions of this Contract.
9. Purchaser acknowledges that it has made, or caused to be made, a complete inspection of the premises and is fully acquainted with the condition thereof. The Seller has not made and does not make any representation, express or implied, to the Purchaser with respect to the description of the premises, its value, the cost of operating or maintaining the premises, the physical condition of the roof or plumbing or heating systems or any structure thereon.

Purchaser expressly acknowledges that no such representations have been made, except as herein otherwise provided and except that the plumbing, heating and electrical systems, appliances will be in working order at the time of closing, and roof free of leaks. The Purchaser expressly agrees to take said premises in its present condition "AS IS" and the Seller is not and shall not be liable or bound in any manner for or by any expressed or implied statement, representation, warranty, guaranty or promise pertaining to the premises of any other person representing or purporting to represent the Seller. The acceptance of a deed by the Purchaser shall be deemed to be a full performance and discharge of every Contract and obligation on the Seller's part to be performed pursuant to the provisions of this Contract, except those, if any, which are herein specifically stated to survive the delivery of the deed.

10. The Purchasers have no knowledge of any liens or judgments against them, have not filed a bankruptcy petition and know of no reason why they would be rejected for a mortgage loan. In addition, this transaction is not subject to the sale of the Purchaser's current home.
11. The parties agree that the provisions of the Property Condition Disclosure Act, 2001 N.Y. Law 5339-A applies to this transaction. Seller declines to complete the disclosure form and agrees to credit Purchaser with the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) at closing which has already been calculated into the purchase price. Purchaser acknowledges that they have been given the opportunity to conduct a full inspection of the Premises.
12. The Seller's liability with respect to meeting any one or all of the conditions to closing shall be limited to $500. In the event that compliance shall exceed said amount, the Seller shall have the option of canceling the contract and returning the down payment.
13. Transaction is subject to short sale approval by the lender(s). Seller has the option to cancel transaction and return deposit with no further obligations to the Purchaser if the lender decides to request a deficiency judgment, promissory note or additional fees from Seller. From the lender's perspective, the seller is not responsible for the lender's decision to request a deficiency judgment, promissory note or additional fees from Seller.
14. Purchaser's attorney shall order title within 7 days of the fully executed contract or this contract will be considered null and void. receiving a return of the down payment
15. Any notice may be delivered via email to the attorneys for the respective parties. If notice delivered via email, notice shall be deemed given one business day after transmission by sender.
16. This Contract of Sale may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute the same Contract of Sale. Faxed or emailed signatures by the parties and the escrowee shall have the same force and effect as original signatures.
